Important Notices

Your duty of disclosure

You are required to tell us anything you know, or ought to know, that may affect the decision of a prudent insurer whether to accept your insurance, or renew your policy, and if so, on what terms. If you have not disclosed all material information, or if you have misrepresented that information, then we are entitled to avoid the policy retrospectively from the beginning.

Set out below are some examples of the types of information you should disclose and the types you do not need to disclose. They are a guide only. If you are unsure whether you should disclose something to us, please ask.

Types of information that should be disclosed include:

- any previous insurance claim you have made
- anything that increases the risk of a claim
- if another insurer has ever cancelled or refused to renew your insurance or has imposed special terms on it
- any criminal record

Types of information that do not need to be disclosed include:

- anything which reduces the risk of a claim
- anything which you have already told us or which in the ordinary conduct of our business we could be expected to be aware of
- anything which is common knowledge

Privacy

Personal information supplied by you in this application and otherwise is for the primary purpose of evaluating and administering the proposed insurance cover. You are entitled to access this personal information. If you do not provide all the information requested by us, this may affect the insurance cover. It may also be necessary for us to disclose personal information to other parties including agents, reinsurers, claims consultants, mailing houses and market research. Any such disclosure will be in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993.

Important information relating to this proposal

Your Duty of Disclosure

Your Duty of Disclosure subject to the rights set out in the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 ("Clean Slate Act"), you are under a duty to disclose all material information to Ansvr Insurance Limited whether the information is asked for or not. Material information is information that might influence our decision to insure you and if so on what terms and/or premium. All information given must be complete and correct. If you have any doubt as to whether a fact is material then it should be disclosed. The duty to disclose all material information occurs prior to the commencement of cover, if the contract is varied and prior to each renewal. Failure to disclose all material information may result in Ansvr Insurance Limited avoiding your insurance policy. This means your policy would be deemed never to have existed and any claims would not be payable.

Declaration

I/We declare that the information and answers given above are true in every detail and that all material facts have been disclosed. I/We agree to the terms of the policy. I/We authorise Ansvr Insurance Limited to give or obtain from other insurance companies, insurance brokers or any other party any information relating to this or any other insurance held or previously held by me/us and any claim(s) by me/us.

I/We understand that

1. The information collected is evaluative material for the purposes of deciding whether to issue insurance cover. The intended recipient is Ansvr Insurance Limited, 396 Queen Street, Auckland.
2. Ansvr Insurance may refuse to provide insurance cover if I/we fail to provide the information sought.
3. I/We have certain rights of access of correction of this information, subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993.

Declaration to be signed by the applicant(s)

I/We declare that:

1. Subject to any rights I/we have under the Clean Slate Act, the information given is in every respect correct and complete and all material information has been disclosed to Ansvr Insurance Limited.
2. This proposal shall be the basis of the contract between me/us and Ansvr Insurance Limited and I am/we are willing to accept cover subject to Ansvr Insurance Limited policy terms, conditions, exclusions and any special terms they may require.

I/We agree that this application shall be incorporated in and taken as the basis of the proposed contract between me/us and Ansvr Insurance Limited and that this insurance shall be subject to the Companies' current standard Policy.

I/We understand that the information supplied by me/us will be used to evaluate any application form or claim submitted by me/us.

I/We authorise my/our previous insurers, Insurance Broker or other professional intermediary to release any information needed for this insurance.

I/We understand that under the Privacy Act 1993 that I/we have the right of access to and to correct any information held regarding me/us.

I/We agree that this information may be used by Ansvr Insurance Limited to advise us of other products and services available.
